HERE'S the POINT!

By SPENCE HELD

"I fear that our smog-veiled Queen of the Angels will never become the Athens of the West. Gone is her youthful beauty. Skid Row and Sunset Strip are her ulcers, and traffic hardens her arteries."

That's the way Dr. Lawrence Clark Powell of UCLA views Los Angeles.

Me, I have somewhat the same detached viewpoint about San Diego on days when the "inversion layer" hangs over the city.

Like Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday . . . From Point Loma it looked like a white curtain of fog or mist extending from Kearny Mesa to the border.

That was about 7:30 a.m. An hour or so later the white curtain had turned a dirty brown color after thousands of cars, spewing exhaust fumes, converged upon the downtown district from all directions.

To me, the automobile is the villain . . . Too many automobiles, that is.

* * *

My favorite evening paper recently printed an interview with an 80-year-old Indian War veteran who "served in the 2nd U. S. Cavalry at Ft. Grant, Arizona Territory, in 1895 and 1896."

He was quoted as saying, "Most of the time we were chasing Geronimo but we never did catch up with him."

No wonder. Geronimo surrendered in 1886.

* * *

A 19-year-old sailor, conservatively described as intoxicated, roared through Ocean Beach Monday night at the wheel of a car going 75 or 80 miles an hour.

He hit three or four parked cars, a garage and utility pole, causing damage estimated at $3,000.

This happened on W. Point Loma Blvd.

Sailors and marines kill themselves in fairly large numbers on Highway 101 and elsewhere. They wrap their cars around trees or crash into bridge abutments and other unyielding objects.

* * *

And that brings us to the Christmas holidays. The National Safety Council made a study of 501 fatal Yuletide accidents which killed 609 persons. It was found that drinking drivers were involved in 55 per cent of the accidents.

Significant quotes:

Plautus—"In everything the middle course is best: all things in excess bring trouble to men."

D. J. Tepper, Oakland—"Sputnik simply means that the human race, having loused up one planet, now has the charming opportunity of lousing up the galaxy."

Helen Keller—"Keep your face to the sunshine and you cannot see the shadow."

Ocean Beach Elementary School Will Present Yuletide Program

The program includes an adaptation of the Nutcracker Suite with accompanying dances, the Nativity Scene, a verse choir of 35 voices and a song chorus of 70.

Leading roles will be portrayed by Stephen Perry, Joyce Hunter, Susan Peterson and Ann Carpenter. Mrs. Elizabeth Squance, third grade teacher, is serving as general chairman. Mrs. Tess O'Mara is chairman of scenery and staging. Choric verses will be led by Miss Wanda Daniels.

Calif. Western To Present Yule Program Friday

California Western University will present the second performance of its Community Christmas Program tomorrow at 8:15 p.m. in Dana Junior High School Auditorium.

The first showing of the program was given last night to an invited group of children and adults.

The program consists of three parts, Dr. William C. Rust, president of the Point Loma University, announced. First, a rendition of Schubert's Unfinished Symphony in B-minor by a 25-piece symphony orchestra under the baton of Dr. Garry White of the Cal Western Music Department.

Second, a medley of Christmas carols by the 46-voice University student choir with Nancy Mosby, Jennie Forrester and Chase Page rendering solos. Third, excerpts from the opera Hansel and Gretel to be sung by Mildred Lamb as Hansel, Elizabeth Wolf as Gretel, Clifford Simmons as the Father, and Nancy Mosby as the Sandman.

Narration will be given by Chez Haehl of the University faculty. Musical director for the program is Dr. Walter Teutsch with Dr. Uriel Ittenberg assisting.

Tickets for tomorrow evening's performance are on sale at the Administration Building on the campus at 3902 Lomaland Dr., or may be purchased at the Dana auditorium box office.

United Fund Reaches $17,237 In Area

With one day left in the United Fund's two-week "crash period," house-to-house campaigners in the Ocean Beach-Point Loma area have reached $17,237 for 91.5 per cent of the $18,830 stepping stone quota.

Mrs. James Marlow, area chairman, said the reduced quota is 79 per cent of $23,836, the original need figure for this area.

The crash period, which started Dec. 2, ends tomorrow at a noon report luncheon at the Mission Valley Country Club. The period was set aside as a time when all campaign units would make every effort to reach $3,353,678—slightly more than all campaign units raised separately last year throughout the county.

"More important," drive chairman Rabbi Morton J. Cohn said ,"is that the amount represents what must be raised if the agencies are to even continue their programs on the same level next year as they now provide."

KNEES SHOW NEED

Handsome, six-foot-one Bill (Scotty) Dalgleish takes his club work seriously. He's show chairman of the San Diego Parakeet Club and it's his job to raise funds to put on the annual display.

One of his projects was a pot-luck dinner recently at his home at 4769 Del Monte Ave. During the evening a fellow Scotsman bet Dalgleish $10 towards his fund goal that he wouldn't walk down Sunset Cliffs Blvd. in his kilts. (Douglas Clan!)

Dalgleish, who came here four years ago from Duuoon, Scotland, dressed up in his kilts an paraded down the boulevard. He stopped traffic!

Incidentally, if you want to know what he wears under those skirts, ask him. He'll tell you! That is, he'll tell you for a slight donation to his club project.

NOT BAD

The teenage daughter had entered a speech contest and through several clever maneuverings had come out on top. She related the story to her family, then proceeded to call all her friends on the phone and go through the same, long story.

"Now, let me read you how one of my critics graded me," she repeated for the umpteenth time. "He wrote: Good posture, good poise, good gestures, good diction, good . . . "

She paused a moment.

"Grief!" chorused her family from the living room.

BONUS

Who says school teachers are underpaid? We understand there are bonuses connected with the job. In fact, we just heard a local fourth grade teacher who got aditional compensation during a spelling class.

The topic was Columbus and one of the words on the list was "shape." The class pronounced it, discussed it phonetically, pointed out the silent "e," etc.

"Now," asked the teacher, "who can use the word correctly in a sentence?"

The little girl in the first row raised her hand. "Our teacher has a very lovely shape," she said.

AD-VOCATES

Neighborhood gatherings are one of the friendliest ways we know to express "good will to men." When could one find a nicer time than the present?

Continuing their tradition of neighborhood gatherings are Mrs. Wendell Stewart and Mrs. Charles Marshall who entertained Thursday with a Christmas coffee at Mrs. Stewart's home on Point Loma Ave.

A giant mincemeat coffee ring dominated the refreshment table. Many newcomers were introduced and welcomed to the neighborhood at this party.

HEARD AND LIKED

"We don't have to (make up) to our children what we ourselves didn't have. Our children may not want it."

LIBLETS

Looking over the movie section in the daily newspaper, the State College freshman sighed and shook his head. "The show is never as good as the advertisement," he lamented.

HITHER, THITHER, YON

Dr. Gail Burnett has bought the George Vest home at 1129 Savoy St. Dr. Burnett is a professor at State College where she teaches English . . . Mr. and Mrs. Bruce F. Fisher, formerly of 992 Moana Dr., have moved to their new home at 4734 Santa Cruz Ave.

EPSILON SIGMA ALPHA

The Poolview Room of El Cortez Hotel was the setting for the Christmas dinner party of Gamma chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha Sorority, on Tuesday, Dec. 10.

Table decorations of red and white were used by the co-hostesses, Mrs. William Williams and Mrs. Domenic DiTomasco. Mrs. Carlton Riley was presented with a pledge pin and members and guests revealed their secret sisters with a gift exchange.

Girls Complete 1st Aid Course

Twenty-six Jr. Red Cross First Aid certificates were presented to eighth-grade Girl Scouts of Troops 542 and 152 Monday evening at the Point Loma Methodist Church.

The 16-hour course, taught by Art Groth, was organized by Mrs. Ray Perine and Mrs. William R. Reitz.

"The girls hope to organize a First Aid unit for Point Loma whose drill teams would compete all over the city," Mrs. Perine said.

Phone Co. Pays Whopping Tax

Pacific Telephone made the first payment of their 1957-58 county taxes Tuesday—a whopping $1,323,066.

Another payment will be made in April, bringing the total to $2,646,134. This represents an increase of nearly $350,000 over the previous year, telephone manager Max Schwartz stated.

"Our county tax payment has more than doubled in the past four years, pointing out the tremendous amount of growth necessary in the telephone business to keep pace with the development of San Diego County," Schwartz said.

Don't drive after drinking, advises the National Automobile Club.

Yule Seal Sale Hits $86,000

Dr. Albert L. Anderson, president of the San Diego County Tuberculosis and Health Association, announced this week that the 1957 Christmas Seal Sale had reached approximately $86,000.

"I am very happy to report," said Dr. Anderson, "that midway in our Christmas Seal Sale we are keeping pace with last year's returns. $86,000 represents a little more than half the amount we expect to raise this year for tuberculosis work."

As the Tuberculosis Association does not receive funds from any other source, the traditional Christmas Seal Sale is the sole financial support for their tuberculosis work.

"Increased research, case finding, health education and rehabilitation is the way to stamp out tuberculosis. The support we are receiving during out Christmas Seal Sale most certainly indicates the awareness citizens of San Diego County have of the serious health problem tuberculosis creates," stated Dr. Anderson.
